ARIZONA FORM A-4MINSTRUCTIONS

As an Arizona resident military member who is stationed outside of Arizona in compliance with military orders, you may elect not to have Arizona income taxes withheld from your military pay.

NOTE: You may not make this election if you are an Arizona resident military member who is stationed in Arizona.

For Arizona income tax purposes, if you were an Arizona resident when you entered the military, you continue to be an Arizona resident regardless of where you are stationed. You continue to be an Arizona resident unless you establish a new domicile. As an Arizona resident, you are subject to Arizona income tax on all of your income (including your military pay). Therefore, the election to have no Arizona income taxes withheld from your military pay does not relieve you from liability for Arizona income taxes.

In order to elect not to have Arizona income taxes withheld from your military pay, complete two copies of Arizona Form A-4M. Give both copies to your finance officer.

The finance officer should retain one copy of the Form A-4M and forward the other copy to:

Arizona Department of Revenue
PO Box 29009
